LRS founder, Joe Linsalata, says:

"What should you expect when you work with Linsalata Realty Services?

Results.

"When I first got into the real estate brokerage business, I realized that it was not going to be easy. That suited me fine—I enjoy producing good results better when it takes effort. I believe that anything worthwhile comes with a price.

"At LRS, my associates and I are willing to pay that price every day by persevering when conditions become difficult to produce a good result for you, netting you the greatest return on your investment."

OUR LRS MARKETING STRATEGY WORKS!

John S. Muhich, Owner, AAA Self Storage says:

What are you looking for in your broker? Good advice? Follow-through? Professionalism? Real Estate Knowledge? Diligence?

Some comments from buyers we've worked with:

An impressed buyer, from "across the table" when LRS represented the seller…
I have bought about 300 storage facilities now, and want to thank you for doing your job and doing it well. Very few brokers stay involved with the transaction once an LOI is executed, but you stayed involved and kept everyone on track; that is uncommon in the brokerage world. You consistently went beyond our expectations in your duties and service, which I am sure made this an easy transaction for your Seller. I wish you the best and hope to be able to work with you again soon. Pete Williams, President, CEO, Premier Storage Investors

We had the pleasure of engaging Joe Linsalata of Linsalata Realty Services during the purchase of property on the outskirts of Austin, TX. Joe worked with our lawyers to make a very complicated real estate transaction possible. Equally important from our point of view, his deep understanding of

- the real estate market,
- its financing, and
- the nature of commercial real estate

helped us make a series of wise decisions we could not have made without his help.

We have over the years purchased several properties, in Texas and the West Coast, and, in our opinion, Joe Linsalata is one of the most capable and thorough professionals working in the field in Texas and elsewhere in the US.

It has been a pleasure working with Linsalata Realty Services and we hope to be able to use their services in our future transactions. Sergio Palleroni and Margarette Leite, Partners, Palleroni & Leite, LLC

Not only have you been extremely effective in providing buying opportunities for our partnership, but when I call other brokers, they usually refer me to you. This is a testament to your reputation among your professional colleagues. Thank you for everything that you do for us. Keep up the good work and keep bringing us properties to bid on. J. Winston Krause, Officer, KrauseCo LP

What are you looking for in your broker? Integrity? Results? Thoroughness? Dedication?

What sellers say about LRS as a broker:

Thanks for all your work selling the property; I know it was a tough sell in tough times! Danny Doering, Executive Vice President, Carlson, Brigance & Doering, Inc

Over the past several years, I have been fortunate to have enjoyed the brokerage services on several occasions of Joe Linsalata of Linsalata Realty Services.

*During this time, Joe has successfully sold 3 self storage properties for me. Joe has always been diligent and professional in the performance of his services. I am very happy to recommend Joe and his company to any buyer or seller of investment property in Central Texas. Glen Novinger, President, Novinger Resources, Inc.

And to remind you of a comment we showed you earlier…

*I was thoroughly astonished by the amount of activity that your marketing generated. We were flooded with inquiries and offers from people coast to coast. I do not know how you accomplished this much traffic in so little time; three other brokers in the past tried to market these properties and they created only 1/20th the traffic that you did. John S. Muhich, Owner, AAA Self Storage

I have never been involved in a real estate transaction which had so many difficulties to overcome. I am certain that we would not have been able to close the transaction without your hard work and expertise. Michael D. Bohn, Marquis Financial Real Estate Consultants

I have been an active Realtor for more than 25 years. Ralph is an active investor and real estate developer. We have worked with many Realtors. In our opinion, you are at the "top of the list." You have integrity and very impressive work ethics.

Ralph & Joann Faust, Owner, Lone Star Mini Storage, Ingram, TX

Proven Results through Integrity and Dedication

"I was very impressed with the information Joe was able to relay through his listings. The listings were thorough and presented from the perspective of someone who had been in the business for many years.

After our own facility reached maturity, I began working with Joe on listing our own property. ! was amazed how much time and detail he put into it., including several trips. When our facility finally went on the market, we had a strong offer in less than 24 hours. This is because of Joes' reputation, strong character and the network he has built over many years.

From the time the property was under contract to closing, Joe was there for help and questions. He mediated the process very well. We actually closed before the scheduled deadlines.

I have and will continue to recommend Joe and the LRS team to anyone I know. I plan on working with Joe in the future and could not be more satisfied with my experience.

Thanks Joe!"

Affirmation from the other side of the transaction

"We recently completed a successful closing with Joe Linsalata of Linsalata Realty Services. While this deal had its challenges, Joe was an effective and responsive broker from the very beginning. He successfully represented the seller's interests while ensuring that we, as the buyer, had all the essential information we needed.

Throughout the due diligence process, Joe was essential in creating a line of communication between the seller and the buyer, ensuring that items were delivered in a timely fashion. On multiple occasions, he helped effectively navigate around areas of uncertainty or disagreement between the buyer and the seller. Joe is one of the best brokers we work with; we look forward to doing additional business with him in the future."

"Joe Linsalata was the broker representing me in the purchase of a $1.5M self-storage property. A significant amount of negotiation among seller, buyer, and lending institution and a related investment trust added to the transaction's complexity*.*

Joe Linsalata offered suggestions along the way that were helpful and productive to reconcile the differences among parties.

He was very professional, extremely responsive, and demonstrated his character and competency to work through issues and facilitate reaching a transaction that worked for all parties involved.

After the transaction was complete, Joe stayed in close contact with the buyer and seller in order to ensure that both parties were satisfied; he facilitated working out any post closing issues until they were resolved in full."

I recommend Joe to anyone considering buying or selling a commercial property.

"This is a letter of recommendation and thanks to Joe Linsalata for his extraordinary help and assistance… in the sale of a property in San Antonio, TX. The sale was completed only because of his hard work, dynamic personality, professional attitude, and contacts. His professionalism, honesty, and ability to negotiate with various entities are exceptional. We recommend Joe highly for anyone interested in buying or selling any commercial property in the United States. We certainly will never use anyone else in our real estate dealings in the future."

"In 1999, Joe was instrumental in finding an outstanding retail property as a 1031 replacement property for my husband and me, and was a key player in securing an investor group that closed on the property in 2006 at a substantial increase in value.

In 2004, Joe helped me secure the purchase of a self storage property for a limited family partnership.

Joe has always been extremely helpful in resolving issues that arise during the due diligence and sales closing processes of complex transactions, including those which involve IRC Section 1031 exchanges.

I recommend Joe Linsalata highly."

"Joe obtained a qualified and highly motivated strategic buyer for our 1,050 unit self storage property. He assisted in negotiating a price which equated to approximately a 6% cap rate on current NOI. This was a superior offer; we successfully worked with Joe and the buyer to close the transaction within 60 days of contract execution. Joe is extremely diligent and persistent, always willing to step up and work to push the deal forward. We found him hardworking, honest, ethical, and very professional. I would recommend him to any buyer of self storage properties."

"Joe Linsalata sold a retail property in San Antonio, TX, for Red Hills Holdings. Joe did a great job from start to finish in locating a buyer and managing the process throughout. This was all done off market and solely by Joe and his team. It was a smooth process and all sides were happy with the outcome. I would recommend LRS to other buyers and sellers in the area."

Kevin Kidd, Red Hills Holdings, LLC Portland, OR
